Of Attorneys for Defendant City of Eugene

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF OREGON

JUSTIN TYLER VANDEGRAAF,

Case No.: 6:08-cv-6314-HO

Plaintiff,

vs.

DECLARATION OF OFFICER
SHARLOW IN SUPPORT OF THE
CITY OF EUGENE'S MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

CITY OF EUGENE, A MUNICIPALITY; OFFICER J. SHARLOW (No. 388), in his individual capacity and as a police official for the City of Eugene,

Defendants.

I, John Sharlow, declare as follows:

1. I am a police officer employed by the City of Eugene and have been employed in that capacity since 2000.

2. During my tenure at the City of Eugene, I have received extensive training and have, at all times, maintained my state mandated training certifications. The training I have received from September 2000 through January 2009 is accurately described in the document attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

3. I am very familiar with the training programs taught to officers by the City of Eugene Police Department.

4. The City of Eugene does not have a custom or policy of inadequate training of its police officers.

5. The City of Eugene has a custom and policy that requires all officers to maintain their state mandated training certifications and to be sufficiently trained in all areas, including defensive tactics and insuring no person's constitutional rights are violated in the course of an arrest and detention.

6. I am also very familiar with my fellow Eugene Police Officers and am of the opinion all of the Eugene Police Officers are, in fact, properly trained by the City of Eugene in defensive tactics and in how to insure no person's constitutional rights are violated in the course of an arrest and detention.

7. In my opinion, I have been properly trained by the City of Eugene in defensive tactics and in how to insure that no person's constitutional rights are violated in the course of an arrest and detention.

8. Through the training taught by the City of Eugene, I have learned that the optimal way to diffuse a potentially dangerous situation with a detainee is to get the detainee onto the ground. There are several ways to accomplish this, the most appropriate depending on the circumstances an officer is confronted with at the time.

9. One of the defensive tactics I have been trained in by the City of Eugene as a means of taking an uncooperative person to the ground involves placing my hand on the person's chest for support, and then sweeping the person's feet out from under them. I have used this maneuver at least two dozen times over the past eight years as an officer with the City of Eugene. On some of those occasions the person was handcuffed and on some they were not. The incident with the plaintiff in this case is the first and only time the use of this defensive tactic maneuver by me has resulted in a serious injury.

10. I was working a night shift as a police officer for the City of Eugene on October 10, 2006. At approximately 1:00 a.m., I received a call from dispatch about an interrupted 911 call from a distraught female living at 450 W. 8th Avenue in Eugene. I went directly to the location and was met there by Eugene Police Officer Chris Vreim.

11. On our way to the apartment where the 911 caller lived, Officer Vreim and I passed an intoxicated male stumbling down the sidewalk. This person was later identified as Justin Vandegraaf, the plaintiff in this case.

12. At the apartment, we spoke with a young lady named Tiffanie Jones. Ms. Jones was hysterical and told us her boyfriend, plaintiff Justin Vandegraaf, had just assaulted her. She also claimed he had taken her cell phone from her and broke it while she was calling 911. During my conversation with Ms. Jones, I noticed there was a small child, about two years old, awake in the living room. Ms. Jones also stated that Mr. Vandegraaf was very intoxicated.

13. From the description Ms. Jones gave us of Mr. Vandegraaf, I realized it was the same person we had passed on the way to the apartment. Officer Vreim and I left the apartment to see if we could find Mr. Vandegraaf. Officer Vreim and I located Mr. Vandegraaf lying on the ground in the parking lot of the apartment building. His sweatshirt was on backward and he was not wearing shoes.

14. Mr. Vandegraaf was surly and used profane language when speaking to us. He did identify himself when asked.

15. Based on my initial contact with Ms. Jones, I had probable cause to arrest Mr. Vandegraaf for assault and interfering with making a police report. Officer Vreim and I arrested Mr. Vandegraaf and placed him in handcuffs. I then transported Mr. Vandegraaf to the Lane County Jail.

16. I drove into the jail's sally port and got out of the car to open Mr. Vandegraaf's door. Mr. Vandegraaf initially did not get out of the car. After I again told Mr. Vandegraaf to exit the vehicle, he swung his feet out the door, stood up and proceeded to charge at me. Mr. Vandegraaf's chest made solid contact with mine and knocked me off balance. Mr. Vandegraaf's entire body was tense and he had a very angry look on his face. I feared he was trying to knock me down to assault me.

17. Once I regained my balance, I grabbed Mr. Vandegraaf by the arm, turned him around and placed his chest on the trunk of the police car. Despite being handcuffed, Mr. Vandegraaf was very strong and hard to control. I told Mr. Vandegraaf to stop resisting. I was about to call dispatch for assistance when Mr. Vandegraaf pushed off the car, spun his body around and faced me. Mr. Vandegraaf again attempted to push me backward. I was afraid for my safety and decided the best thing to do was to place Mr. Vandegraaf on the ground where he would be easier to control.

18. Because of our proximity to each other and the way our bodies were facing, I decided the most effective defense tactic to use to bring Mr. Vandegraaf safely to the ground would be the leg sweep maneuver described above. While holding onto Mr. Vandegraaf's sweatshirt in the front, I swept his legs. Mr. Vandegraaf did not resist the move or tense up and he fell much easier and quicker than I had expected. Mr. Vandegraaf landed on the concrete floor, striking his chin quite hard. In my opinion, the use of this defensive tactic to bring plaintiff to the ground was reasonable and necessary under the circumstances.

19. After Mr. Vandegraaf was on the ground, some deputies and the jail nurse came out to assist me. The nurse looked at Mr. Vandegraaf's chin and decided he needed to be seen at the hospital before he could be lodged in the jail.

20. I transported Mr. Vandegraaf to Sacred Heart Hospital where I stayed with him while he was seen by an emergency room doctor. At no time was Mr. Vandegraaf unconscious. Mr. Vandegraaf was very uncooperative with the hospital staff. He yelled profanities at them and said he did not want anyone to touch him. Eventually the doctor was able to stitch the cut on Mr. Vandegraaf's chin. We were told that nothing was broken and he was allowed to leave. I transported Mr. Vandegraaf back to the jail where he was booked in without further incident.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Dated this 11th day of May, 2009.
